

CROSSVISION MISSION
DECEMBER 2009
ENCOURAGEMENT FROM HERMANO GLEN

"The King (Jesus) will reply, 'I tell you the truth, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers of mine, you did for me.'" (Matt 25:40)

"He will reply, 'I tell you the truth, whatever you did not do for one of the least of these, you did not do for me.'" (Matt 25: 45)

When I read these verses I can't help but believe it was this, others-centered, characteristic of God that brought about the birth of our Savior. Wow! Oh what a privilege to be known as one of the least of Jesus brothers. It gives us a totally new view of how truly awesome is the love of God. It makes Christmas more than a holiday, more than a buying season, more than even a time for family. It makes Christmas an others-centered time.

Yes, Christmas is coming and it is easy to see the world all around us has lost the true perspective of Jesus in the season. So let's not get caught up in the, "give me more, more, more" self-centered race to outdo our neighbors; but instead, let us focus our resources and time on the least of Jesus' brothers, let us show the world the true meaning of Christmas and make a difference with an others-centered perspective.

This is usually the time of year most of our churches are giving toward the Lottie Moon offering or some other ministry extending the love of Christ worldwide. So I want to take this opportunity to encourage each of you to remember, according to the verses above, this is your opportunity to give directly to Jesus by giving to His brothers serving and sharing His love in mission fields around the globe. One day we will give an answer to the King of Kings and believe me the question will not be, "What did you get for Christmas?"

Please be a prayer partner for the CrossVision Christmas Family Mission Team. This year on December 27 thru 31 this team of 300 plus missionaries will be serving alongside several Mexican Churches on the border to share the love of Christ and the good news of the Savior. During this mission the team will be sharing the gospel in multiple ways, distributing hundreds of Bibles, assisting in the addition of 2000 square feet of classroom space and building a dorm for 14 to 18 year old boys to be able to live and go to school at the David Livingston Christian Academy in Piedras Negras, Mexico.

I also want to wish each of you a wonderful Christmas blessing from my family and the entire ministry team of CrossVision. We are committed to our Lord Jesus to serve him and share him as far and as long as he will allow. We could not continue without the support of many brothers and sisters in Christ. Our prayers are that God would use you in and through CrossVision to share his love to a lost world.

Together "We will move forward on our knees" (Eph 6:18)
