

CROSSVISION MISSIONS JULY 2008, UPDATE

“JESUS SAID TO THEM “MY FATHER IS ALWAYS AT WORK TO THIS VERY DAY, AND I, TOO, AM WORKING...”
(JOHN 5:17)

This verse is a powerful source of motivating encouragement to those who are Christians (followers of Jesus Christ). In John 14 Jesus also says “Anyone who has faith in me will do what I have been doing”. I only wish that I could be able to say that every day of my life I am at work with Jesus and the Father, doing what Jesus had been doing. If I am honest with myself much of my time I am practicing Psalms 130 “I wait for the Lord”. The problem is He is not waiting for me. He and the Father are always at work. Henry Blackaby says we should be looking for where God is at work and join Him. So with that said, let me tell you about believing in the impossible Baptist Church. That’s right, there really is a Baptist Church with enough faith to believe in the impossible. This is where I found God at work.

I could write a book about this little church and pastor Fito Gomez. But time is limited and attention is short, so I want to share How God and some followers of Jesus worked last week in Morelos, MX. Luis, my two daughters, and I had the privilege of serving with a mission team from FBC Garfield, Arkansas. Fito and the members of Creyendo Lo Imposible had already been experiencing God’s hand moving within their midst. This was evident by the number of people who showed up to help each day. The little church is growing in every area especially among the youth. I was thrilled to see the youth turn out to help with the VBS and street witnessing teams.

Fifteen year old Dakota from Arkansas and three of the Mexican boys, all around Dakota’s age, were on my street witnessing team. The Mexican boys wanted nothing to do with it until I started to challenge them that this fifteen year old gringo was showing them up. One by one they began to join in and with in a couple of houses they had completely taken over the cube and c.d. player. At one of the houses we found four mothers living together, all of their husbands had abandon them and their children. While the youth were sharing the cube inside the house, two older teenaged boys walked up, sat down in a car out front, and started smoking cigarettes. I spoke to them and got their names, Ivon and Christian. It was obvious they really did not want to talk to this tall handsome gringo, so I backed off. But when the boys were through in the house they came out and made a B-line for the car. They ask Ivon if he wanted to listen and he replied sure but only if we can put it in the car c.d. player. They listened but did not respond to the invitation to pray. This gave me a great opportunity to use my God Spanish? I explain in detail what they just heard and made sure they understood the c.d. I ended up being able to lead them in a sinner’s prayer to receive salvation.

God was truly at work in Morelos and the neighboring towns, as a result we saw more than 60 professions of faith and started three Bibles studies in homes, that's not counting children who heard the Gospel at the VBS.

I hope you are looking for where God is at work around you today. If you are not I want encourage you, God wants you to truly understand His abundant life. Seek where He is at work and begin today doing what Jesus does. Please join me in praying for Rodolfo (Fitó) Gomez and Creyendo Lo Imposible Baptist Church in Morelos, MX. They have been working so hard to reach the lost in their area and see them become a community of disciples.

Please continue to pray for all the saints all the time. (Eph 6:18).
