

CROSSVISION MISSION JUNE / JULY NEWS 2010

“Whoever does what is true comes to the light, so that it may be clearly seen that his works have been carried out in God.” (John 3:21)

I used to think to myself how insanely overwhelmed Noah must have felt about two thirds of the way through building the ark. Today, while working with three Mexican brothers on the Barnabas Church planters Training Center in Piedras Negras, Mexico I came to realize the construction of the ark was a minor weight on Noah shoulders compared to the fact that God Himself had told him to build it.

The Barnabas project is a personal “Noah’s Ark” experience for me. Not just because it is a huge undertaking in terms of physical size and financial cost, but because God clearly spoke to my heart and directed me to Pastor Israel Rodriguez, whom God had spoken to six years earlier and planted the very same call on his heart. So, like Noah, the real weight on our shoulders is that we would not let our God down.

Last week, as we met to determine what we needed to finish the construction and it was determined we were several thousand dollars from being able to house even one young person I found myself consumed in prayer. Full of faith, I laid the needs before the very One whom said do this and before the week was out one of God’s blessing came as a faithful supporter called to share his desire to give to this project.

Please hear me when I say every person within a half-mile of this building can see it and “The Light” shines brightly from it. Church planters are critical if the people of Latin America are to come to truly understand the Gospel. Please pray for the upcoming National Baptist Convention of Mexico. Luis Martinez and Pastor Israel will be sharing the Barnabas project with the Convention and the pastors will be called upon to extend God’s call within their congregations. My heart is that you will join me in seeing this Kingdom building work carried out in God.

The verse above starts with, “Whoever.” Does that include you? I often ask God to allow those who support this ministry to know and understand what great work He is doing in and through a humble few. Please pray and ask God if He would have you be a part of doing this Kingdom work in His name. Ask Him to provide all that is needed for this project to glorify Him and as always,

Together “We will move forward on our knees” (Eph 6:18)
