

CROSSVISION MISSIONS JUNE 2009

“Let all who take refuge in you (God) be glad; let them ever sing for joy. Spread your protection over them, that those who love your name rejoice in you.”

(Psalms 5:11)

“Even now the reaper draws his wages, even now he harvest the crop for eternal life, so that the sower and the reaper may be glad together.” (John 4:36)

I love to spiritually prepare for going on mission with God. Even though I wrote most of the guides and have been through them a time or two, God still speaks to me and reminds me of His presence in my life. It's only four days until I fly off to Brazil and seek to be apart of what God is doing in that place. Today in my prep-time these verses reminded me of just how good it is to be a child of the living God. Today I can sing and rejoice without a worry in the world because He is my refuge and my protector. I love His name, “Jesus” and I am going to share a love that is unconditional and everlasting. My friends, it doesn't get much better on this side of the Kingdom. My heart jumps with anticipation as I think of seeing the faces of lost and searching souls as the spirit of God comes into their lives and makes eternal changes. I am praying many tears of joy will be shed and the halls of heaven will joyously explode as the angels rejoice over many repenters. This verse, in John, reminds me that God is already at work. He does not need or wait for this team; No! He has chosen to draw us, into His redeeming work. He wants us to be apart of His ABUNDANT life. The eternal harvest has begun there and God has invited us to join His labor of Joy.

Last week we held a team leaders training seminar and one of the key things the CrossVision training points out is that we should always incorporate the whole body of Christ into our service through prayer. It is the one way every individual, regardless of their circumstances can be apart of the Kingdom work. I often fail in this area. I let myself get so busy that I don't even think to ask more than a couple or so to pray for me and the team. I don't want that to happen any more, so I am starting here.

If you have taken the time to read this note then you obviously are concerned about our Father's business. So, I am asking you to be apart of this ministry through prayer. Specifically for this team that will be leaving Friday June 12 and returning Saturday June 20th. I would like to ask you to pray the same prayer I describe above then pray for each team member and the area Missionary. Jon Glover, Barbra Woodley, Leigh Evans, Bill Palmer, Sonny Bennett, Jonathan Whitlock, Austin Phillips, J.D. Pierce and Glen Pierce. We will be serving alongside of IMB missionary Clyde Fowler in Tavares, Paraiba, Brazil.

Together “We will move forward on our knees” (Eph 6:18)
